- Keeping up with the latest industry knowledge, B20, B21 and Anti-Money Laundering Legislations and market trends
- Work in collaboration with the team to ensure targets are being met
- Assessing up to 6 applications per day
- Evaluating and analyzing documentation supplied from the broker to ensure Anti-Money Laundering and Know-Your Client legislation have been complied with and meets Equity's guidelines and policies
- Fulfilling all conditions required and communicating remaining conditions with the brokers in a timely fashion
- Provide credit decision experience on complex mortgage packages.
- Quick and efficient turnaround time, ensuring brokers are provided first with a verbal quote followed up with a commitment in accordance to industry standard timelines.
- Effective pipeline management with frequent follow ups with brokers to ensure documents are received on a timely basis

Qualifications & Attributes:

The successful candidate will have:

- Strong understanding of the B20 and Anti-Money Laundering legislation.
- 3 years' experience in the residential mortgage industry, particularly broker origination
- A passion for exceeding customer service expectations and an ability to deliver on those expectations.
- Strong understanding of residential mortgage documentation review
- Proven ability to make sound underwriting decisions.
- Well developed negotiation and sales skills
- Relationship building skills
- Time management and multi-tasking skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to work independently and within a team environment
- Ability to adapt to a fast paced, changing environment
- PC literacy with working knowledge of Microsoft Outlook, Excel, Word and other financial/adjudication programs.
